

PAMLICO ROSE INSTITUTE OPEN HOUSE

For Women Veterans and their Families

June 12th, 2021 11AM to 2PM

Pamlico Rose Institute (PRI) Invites Women Veterans to:

Learn about PRI's mission to promote wellness and build resilience one woman Veteran at a time.

Meet PRI staff and volunteers

Tour Rose Haven Center of Healing and explore programming for women Veterans and their families, such as gardening, woodworking, and arts and crafts

Learn how to become a PRI volunteer

Visit with other Veteran Service Organizations onsite for the day

Participate in activities fun for the whole family

Enjoy refreshments fit for a summer's day

Don't leave without giving us suggestions of how PRI and Rose Haven can help build a supportive and safe space for women Veterans and their families.

Event Partners

Eastern Carolina Veterans Coalition(ECVC)

Military Order of the Purple Heart (MOPH) Chapter 639

Disability Advocates and Resource Center

NCPACKS4PATRIOTS

Disabled American Veterans (DAV) Chapter #48

About the Pamlico Rose Institute

The Pamlico Rose Institute (PRI) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit dedicated to serving women Veterans through wellness, resilience, and community building. PRI is located in Washington, North Carolina, at the Rose Haven Center of Healing. To find out more about PRI and the Rose Haven Center of Healing visit us in person or at www.pamlicorose.org.

For more information contact Kaitlyn O'Donnell kaitlyn@pamlicorose.org

JUNE 12TH 2021 11AM TO 2PM
AT THE ROSE HAVEN CENTER OF HEALING
219 E. 3RD STREET WASHINGTON, NC

DISABILITY ADVOCATES & RESOURCE CENTER